GOALS AND METHODS

The purpose of the seminar is to analyze and discuss some of the latest developments in competition law. The seminar will focus on some of the most challenging issues at the European level, including those relating to the review of rules on horizontal agreements and the most recent case law and practice and other current issues regarding competition “on the merits”.

To this end, the seminar will bring together an exceptional team composed of internationally recognized professionals from the public and private sectors.

This Seminar will be held through Microsoft Teams (online mode)
